

Full Bio:

Jenni Bickerstaff serves as SVP and Principal at AHT since 2007 and is an experienced employee benefit expert with over 23 years within the industry. Jenni thoroughly understands the problems that can arise during the administration of health plans, the best ways to resolve them, and more importantly, what can be done to avoid typical pitfalls. She has earned her global medical benefits certification and is particularly proficient in advising employers on their International needs.

In addition, Jenni has served on the NVTC International committee since 2014, and the NVTC CFO awards committee since 2013. Jenni has coordinated, lead and participated on panels regarding the Affordable Care Act and has also spoken to HR professionals, CFOs and CEOs on how ACA has and will impact their companies and the best ways to better manage their medical care premiums and control costs with both a short and long term strategy. Jenni is also a member of the National Association of Health Underwriters and serves on the advisory board of two national health carriers.

Jenni also serves on the board of the Arc of Loudoun and personnel committee since 2015. Prior to joining AHT in 2007, Jenni spent 13 years in the health care industry. Her vast experience in employee welfare programs spans from member and claims management to managing the D.C. metro and WV area benefits region for a national medical carrier.