THIS MORNING'S MUST-SEE

Even in the snow, NVTC has become a compulsory stop for candidates running for statewide office, as Virginia gubernatorial candidate Terry McAuliffe's breakfast this morning with 56 of its board members showed.

Here in IMC's board room in Reston, the former DNC and Hillary campaign chair sounded pro-business themes, although this is an unusual pose for him, appearing to signal "Stop." Usually the hyper-energetic pol's body language screams, "Go, Go, Go!" Other candidates for the office (Democratic delegate Brian Moran and state senator Creigh Deeds, GOP attorney general Bob McDonnell) are also scheduled. Next to Terry, NVTC prez Bobbie Kilberg and Chair Donna Morea, and we see in the background CGI's Maria Cornell and Base Technology's Gary Nakamoto.
