

Grant Elliott
CEO
Ostendi

Grant Elliott is the Founder and CEO of Ostendio, Inc. a DC-based information security management company providing practical and affordable compliance solutions.

Before founding Ostendio, Mr. Elliott was the Chief Operations Officer and Chief Information Security Officer at Voxiva, a leading US-based mobile health provider. He was responsible for building the groundbreaking Text4baby and Text2quit mobile solutions, leading the organization through multiple ISO 27002 security audits and its first HIPAA audit based on the OCR HIPAA Audit Protocols.

Mr. Elliott has a strong domain expertise in communications, health IT and Mobile Health and is a subject matter specialist in Information Security and Regulatory compliance with a specific focus on FDA Mobile medical applications and HIPAA/HITECH